Tamara Forge

Tamara Forge is the writer who brings Tojo and Nelly's Cat Tales to life. She works closely with Maria Merrett to transform her wonderful ideas into words on pages. Maria and Tamara work together on original photos of each real-life pet, before transforming them into the lovable characters you read about in our stories.

Tamara has worked as a children's writer for many years, in the capacity of a ghost-writer. In our series Tojo and Nelly's Cat Tales, we are glad to be able to put real names to the talented creators. All of our contributors are credited with their true identities, even each charismatic pet, as you will see from our photo and portrait galleries

Tamara still works as a ghost-writer, but more so as a named author and is in the process of publishing numerous other titles, for more on her work please visit: www.tamaraforge.co.uk this site will also be updated with links to Tojo and Nelly's Cat Tales.
